Sale Thursday, March 27, 1919
Uppermill Farm, Wapello, Iowa

VILLAGER'S CORONET 476743

About this Offering

THIS is the Fifth Annual Sale from the Uppermill herd. In the selection of these cattle the sellers aim to maintain the high standard characteristic of every offering yet made from that herd. This one, of course, is strong in the blood of the great sire Villager, either in sons and daughters or grandsons and granddaughters by his most noted breeding sons. There are specially attractive herd heading prospects sired by Villager and from dams noted for their producing worth. The few female descendants of Villager are listed merely to add attractiveness to the offering and among them will be noted a few specially valuable breeding propositions. That something like twenty head are bred to Villager's Coronet, the Champion son of Villager, adds materially to their desirability. From the standpoint of pedigree and individual worth it is an offering that is of special interest to those who appreciate an opportunity of making selections from one of the noted collections of the breed. It is the short cut to prominence and success in the business.
